

I am opposed to any legislation that will limit or encourage the limitation on the number of outlets that will control the dissemination of news. The American public needs as much diversity in the sources of information as is possible. We DO NOT NEED more control of news by corporations.